The Proverbs Series

Peace Making

Pastor Ken Sistrunk

Proverbs 12:15-28

| I. | Her | re are the key points to this pas | sage. |
|--|--|------------------------------------|--|
| | A. | It is easy to be to | our weaknesses if we only surround |
| | (| ourselves with people who agre | e with us. V.15, 20 |
| | В. | We must be | in our anger. There are times to |
| | (| overlook an offense. V.16, 18 | |
| | C. | The core of lying is the intent to | o V.17, 19, 22 |
| | D. | We are often our own worst | V.21 |
| | E. | We are not | to always give our opinions. V.23 |
| | F. | Laziness appears to be | but it punishes more than |
| | | it rewards. V.24, 27 | |
| | G. | We have the power to | others with our words. V.25 |
| | Н. | We have real | to make and they matter. V.28 |
| II. | I. How can we apply these truths? | | |
| | A. | Learn how to | ideas with others. Resist the temptation |
| to attack and learn the art of agreeing to disagree. | | | reeing to disagree. |
| | В. | We must learn the | of dealing with anger in a godly way. |
| | C. Our must be yes and our must be no. | | our must be no. |
| | D. | We must learn to do | we have to do we have to do it. |
| | E. | We must learn to | our words and your |
| | | listening. | |