

The-Ology Island Series #4

The Omni-Controversy

Captains Log: We are still preparing ourselves for serious battle with the Ism-Pirates. These last couple of messages were aimed at preparing to battle these pirates. They are intended to get our mind focused on who God is and to be skilled at spotting false beliefs.

Roll Call/Treasure Hunt: Here are the attributes of Yahweh that we are studying today.

I. Omniscience (unlimited knowledge)

Psalm 147:5

Psalm 139:1-6, 23

Hebrews 4:13

- A. There is no limit to the _____ of God.
- B. God's _____ is unlimited.
- C. We will be held _____.

II. Omnipresence (everywhere at the same time)

Psalm 139:7-12

Jeremiah 23:23-24

- A. God is _____. He is without the limit of space.
- B. We cannot _____ from God.

III. Omnipotence (all powerful)

- B. Nothing is too _____ for Him.

IV. Omnibenevolent (all loving)

Psalm 36:7

Romans 8:38-39

1 John 4:8

- A. He is totally concerned with what is _____ for us.
- B. God is _____.

Crew Huddle / Ism-Pirates: Here is a basic criticism that you will receive from Ism-Pirates when you claim to believe in Yahweh.

Q: “If God (Yahweh) is all knowing, everywhere at the same time, and all powerful why doesn’t He prevent bad things from happening?”

A: There are many answers to this. One that I find that is helpful is that God allows bad things to happen in order to provide opportunities for Him to _____. Sin has _____ creation and it cannot be fixed. However, in the brokenness there are opportunities for Him to _____ creation. He allows _____ in order for there to be a _____. The product that resurrection produces is what He was out to create from the beginning.

Romans 8:28

Set Course: Next week we will begin to look at logical arguments for the existence of God. These are not Scripture based per se, but they are definitely backed up by Scripture. Remember: All truth is God’s Truth! We are on a journey to help to spot lies when we see them.
